Description

Based on the Wheel of Fortune card from the Baroque Bohemian Cats' Tarot, in this version the picture is combined with a really beautiful soft silk velvet (silk rayon mix) that gleams when it catches the light - lovely to touch as well as to see. In this bag, the velvet is BLACK (but pictured in wine red).

- Beautifully made in a high quality silk velvet (silk/rayon mix). It's very soft and lush to the touch — and has a wonderful gleam when the light hits it.
- Finished with Czech cord in gold or silver and Czech glass bead finials (with specially made gorgeous, chunky beads). *bead colours may vary.
- Fully lined in a toning silk-mix fabric for a little extra touch of luxury.
- Printed individually — by Baba Studio. This bag is very vivid and luscious in colour and fully dry-cleanable.
- The print is absolutely fast and won't fade, run or otherwise deteriorate in normal use, so you will be able to enjoy it for years.
- At approx 14 cm by 21 cm these are a really useful size — and if you want to store tarot in them they are large enough to use for even the most over-sized cards.
- The bag can be used for your tarot, oracle or playing cards, as a jewellery holder, a cosmetics and "odd and ends" bag, or simply hung up for display. It also makes a stunning present when filled with your choice of small gifts.
